

'I Know It Was The Blood Lyrics

*In the silence of the night, when shadows loom,
And the world seems lost in a shroud of gloom,
There's a melody that echoes deep within,
A song of redemption that erases sin.*

*I know it was the blood that set me free,
Flowing from the cross of Calvary,
It washed away my guilt and shame,
And now I stand redeemed in Jesus' name.*

*Through the darkest valleys, I'll journey on,
For in His blood, my strength is drawn,
It leads me to the light, where hope abounds,
And in His love, my faith resounds.*

*I know it was the blood that paved the way,
To a brighter future, a brand-new day,
It broke the chains that held me tight,
And filled my soul with heaven's light.*

*So I'll lift my voice and sing His praise,
For His blood has power to heal and raise,
It conquered death and sin's dark tide,
And in His grace, I will abide.*

*I know it was the blood that won the fight,
And clothed me in robes of purest white,
It's the anthem of salvation, loud and clear,
For in His blood, there's no more fear.*

*So let the world proclaim His glorious name,
And let His love set every heart aflame,
For I know it was the blood that set me free,*

And now I live in victory.
