

Yet Not I but Through Christ in Me Lyrics

Verse 1

*What wondrous grace in Jesus, my Redeemer,
No greater gift from heaven's boundless store.
He is my joy, my righteousness, my freedom,
My steadfast love, my peace forevermore.*

Chorus 1

*In Him alone, my hope finds firm foundation,
My life entwined with His eternally.
Oh, how divine, I sing with exultation,
Yet not by me, but through Christ's grace in me.*

Verse 2

*Though shadows loom, I'm not abandoned, shaken,
Beside me walks the Savior, ever near.
In weakness, I press on, His strength unshaken,
His power revealed when I'm in need or fear.*

Chorus 2

*He is my Shepherd, guarding and defending,
Through every trial, He will safely lead.
The victory is won, in Him, all mending,
Yet not by me, but through Christ's grace indeed.*

Verse 3

*No dread of fate, for I am fully pardoned,
The future sure, the ransom fully paid.
Jesus, by His blood, my sins abandoned,
Risen to conquer death's eternal shade.*

Chorus 3

*My sin defeated, all chains now unbinding,
Jesus, my plea, both now and evermore.*

*Released, I sing with heart and soul reminding,
Yet not by me, but through Christ's grace I soar.*

Verse 4

*With every breath, I follow Christ my Savior,
He promised home, where joys will never cease.
Renewed each day, His grace my soul's reviver,
Until before His throne, I find my peace.*

Chorus 4

*In Christ alone, my hope finds its completion,
All glory to Him, now and evermore.
When life's race ends, my lips with sweet affection,
Shall still proclaim, through Christ in me, I soar!
When life's race ends, my lips with sweet affection,
Shall still proclaim, through Christ in me, I soar!
Shall still proclaim, through Christ in me, I soar!*
